

BIG YARNS

First Nations Cultural Experiences for All

Presented by First Storytellers Collective

CULTURAL CONNECTIONS. DEEP LEARNING. LASTING IMPACT.

WHAT WE OFFER:

- Theatrical performances
- Cultural awareness workshops
- Acknowledgment of country performances and experiences
- Bush tukka and Islan kai kai cooking experiences
- Visual and textile art workshops
- Traditional Indigenous Games
- Creative Workshops

SAMPLE PROGRAMS

- 1 Day Taster: Performance + Indigenous Games, Yarning Circles and Weaving Workshop
- 3 Week Residence: Truth-telling Series + Cooking + Games + Art
- Culture Week: Multi Class Rotation across the Term/Year
- Custom options tailored to your group

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Curriculum aligned with History, English and more.
- Respectful understanding of First Nations culture
- Build understanding, respect and identity
- Deep engagement with First Nations Culture

READY TO BOOK?

LET'S SING, DANCE, PLAY, LAUGH AND SHARE STORIES –
ONE YARN AT A TIME!

EMAIL: INFO@FIRSTSTORYTELLERS.CO.COM

LITTLE YARNS

AN INTERACTIVE FIRST NATIONS STORYTELLING EXPERIENCE FOR EARLY LEARNERS (AGES 0-5) FEATURING SONG, DANCE, PLAY, YARNS AND LAUGHTER DEVELOPED BY FIRST STORYTELLERS COLLECTIVE A FIRST NATIONS CHARITY.

WHATS INCLUDED?

Led by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists and educators, each performance includes:

- Original and traditional songs
- Gentle guided movement and dancing
- First Nations stories presented through play, puppets and props
- Interactive rhythm games with instruments
- Welcome to Country or Acknowledgment song (explained for little ones)
- Travel costs we come to you!
- Experiences for up to 20 children per session

OPTIONAL EXTRAS

- Ochre-style face painting
- Worksheets
- Simple weaving or crafting with natural materials
- First Nations cooking experiences
- Indigenous Games

WHY IT MATTERS

Little Yarns aligns with the Early Years Learning Framework, supporting:

- Identity & Belonging through cultural appreciation
- Communication & Language through storytelling and song
- Wellbeing & Expression through music and movement
- We create safe, joyful spaces for cultural learning — led with permission and guidance from Elders and community.

READY TO BOOK?

Let's sing, dance, and share stories – one little yarn at a time.

Email: info@firststorytellerco.com

Proudly Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander led

All shows are delivered with cultural sensitivity and permission from Elders and community.

Prices start from $350.00 +
GST